PROBATION

The defendant is hereby placed on probation for a term of 3 years.

While on probation, the defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below):

Based on information presented, the defendant is excused from the mandatory drug testing provision, however, may be requested to submit to drug testing during the period of probation if the probation officer determines a risk of substance abuse.

If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of probation that the defendant pay any such fine, assessment, costs and restitution and shall comply with the following special conditions:

While on probation, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime, shall not possess an illegal controlled substance and shall comply with the other standard conditions that have been adopted by this Court. Based on information presented, the defendant is excused from the mandatory drug testing provision; however, the defendant may be requested to submit to drug testing during the period of supervision if the probation officer determines a risk of substance abuse.

In addition, the defendant shall comply with the following special conditions:

The defendant is prohibited from incurring any new credit charges, opening additional lines of credit, or incurring any new monetary loan, obligation, or debt, by whatever name known, without the approval of the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall not encumber or liquidate interest in any assets unless it is direct service of the fine and/or restitution obligation or otherwise has the expressed approval of the Court.

As a further special condition of probation, the defendant shall refrain from holding, seeking, or obtaining any employment or elected position with a union or labor organization, for the term of probation.
